

Putting Milwaukee to Work: Transitional Jobs Demonstration Project

Policy Studies Inc. (PSI) is looking for unemployed people in Milwaukee to participate in Wisconsin's Transitional Jobs Demonstration Project.

This project focuses on creating jobs and building partnerships between local businesses and unemployed individuals. PSI helps participants gain new job skills and find work with partner employers throughout Milwaukee.

The program is a free employment service to qualifying adults who are ready and willing to work, and who meet the following requirements:

- You are between 21 and 64 years of age.
- Applicants 25 years and older MUST be the parent or primary caregiver of a child under 18 years old.
(The child under 18 years old may be your own child or a relative of a brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, first cousin, second cousin, nephew, or niece. The relationship may be established by blood, marriage, or legal adoption, even if the marriage is terminated by death or divorce.)
- You have an annual income that is less than 150% of the federal poverty level.
(Guidelines are based on household size.)
- You have been unemployed for at least four calendar weeks prior to enrollment.
- You are not eligible to receive W-2 or unemployment benefits.

Additionally, applicants must show the following documents to qualify and participate:

- Proof of age
(Birth certificate or valid drivers license)
- Proof of Milwaukee residency
(Utility bill or mail with your current Milwaukee address)
- Proof of annual income
(Paystubs, SSI, Food Share, TANF, etc.)
- If you are between 25 and 64 years old, proof of parental or guardianship relationship with child under 18 years old.
